HADES

Welcome to the 2024-25 Broadway at the Embassy season. Thanks to Shambaugh & Son, L.P. for sponsoring this season. We have a fabulous lineup awaiting you: Ain't Too Proud, Chicago, Hadestown, Dear Evan Hansen and Tina – The Tina Turner Musical. This is a diverse season offering something for every musical theater fan.

We have worked closely with our Broadway partner Nederlander National Markets to grow this series. Thanks to your ongoing support of and enthusiasm for the Broadway experience, we are embarking on the next phase of this growth! First, we have become a copresenter of this series, which allows us to have more of a strategic voice in the programming. Plus, starting this season, we have two days of each Broadway show to offer flexibility and choice. We also introduced on a limited basis the Balcony Club package, which offers an opportunity to experience the magic of this series on a budget. We are excited to see the evolution of Broadway at the Embassy in our community.

Please spread the word of these unique arts experiences. Sold-out performances and increased subscriptions will allow us to continue growing this series. Thank you for your continued support of the Embassy Theatre.

WHO'S WHO IN GREEK MYTHOLOGY

A guide to the characters that inspired Hadestown.

ORPHEUS—Son of the muse of epic poetry, engaged to marry Eurydice. With his golden voice and lyre, Orpheus charmed all living things, even rocks and stones.

EURYDICE—A dryad, or tree nymph, engaged to marry Orpheus. On the day of their wedding, she was bitten by a poisonous snake, died, and descended to the Underworld.

HADES—God of the dead, ruler of the Underworld, sometimes called “the Wealthy One.” He fell in love with, abducted, and married Persephone. Her mother, goddess of the harvest, refused to bless the earth while Persephone was below.

PERSEPHONE—Goddess of the seasons, flowers, fruit, and grain. By arrangement, she spent half the year with Hades in the Underworld, causing fall and winter above. The other half she returned to her mother, bringing spring and summer with her.

HERMES—Fleet-footed guide, messenger of the gods, and conductor of souls to the Underworld. In some tellings, it was Hermes who taught Orpheus to play the lyre.

FATES—Three goddesses who together determined the destinies of mortals, measuring their lifespans and apportioning their suffering.

CHORUS—In ancient Greek theater, the Chorus sang, spoke, and danced in unison. Often representing the voice of the citizens, the Chorus commented on the actions of characters and served as an emotional conduit for the audience.

The name “Nederlander” has been synonymous with great entertainment since 1912. A show business dynasty began when David T. Nederlander, a smart young businessman living in Detroit Michigan, purchased a 99-year lease on the Detroit Opera House. In 1964, his son James M. Nederlander came to New York City and purchased the Palace Theatre on Broadway. His hard work, pioneering spirit and vision enabled him to build one of the largest privately held live entertainment companies in the world, including theaters in 32 cities across the United States and theaters in London.

Nederlander National Markets, a Nederlander Presentation based in Chicago, is one of the largest presenters of Broadway series and engagements across North America. Currently, they oversee subscription seasons in more than 20 cities throughout the country.

Nederlander continues the tradition of operating historic theatres, producing and presenting the best in theatrical and concert events, and innovating new ways to engage future generations of theatergoers.
